Dear Beleaguered Business Owner,

You're here for a reason, so let's get right to the heart of the matter..

I say "beleaguered" because I know you have been scratching your head day and night trying to solve your business and money making problems and are surrounded by claims from many experts who promise the world and deliver nothing except a hole in your bank balance.

Wouldn't it be nice to make a lot of money quickly, with minimal effort, working from home in your pajamas? Whether it's property investing, internet marketing, stock market investing, services, writing classified ads, affiliate marketing, or something else, we've all seen the fantastic claims people make about making tons of money marketing their business using the internet, AND how they can show you the same thing with such speed and ease your eight year old daughter could do it in her spare time after playgroup.

I can tell you from painful, expensive experience 99% of these 'systems' are total frauds. How many times have you heard these fantastic promises?

- The ultimate "modern miracle" technique of growing your business using the internet.

- A quick and easy 'trick' you can use to wow your customers and its FREE.

- A quick simple page I put up that raked in $92,387 in a single month

- How you can instantly turn on the tap and flood your business with eager clients cash in hand ... and I'll set you up in the next 60 minutes (more like 60 years)

"But wait there's more..." and they offer what seem like great 'bonuses' but are often useless bits of information they have nicked from someone else.

and the list goes on and on and on You may have even ventured into the world of the internet and fallen pray to some of these "Do it yourself" I'll build you a fantastic money making website Get Rich quickly programs.

Me Too, I can't even begin to count the amount of time and money I have spent discovering these weird and wonderful internet money making secrets.

I don't know why but somehow the next "guru" I come into contact with seems to hit my button with one sentence and before I know it "I'm sold" another empty promise.

Finally, after so many disappointments, I got so P-E-E-E-E-E-E-D off I decided to get to the bottom of these shark infested waters and find out whether anyone would come clean and give me a legitimate money making roadmap without the fluff and filler. I literally contacted every business owner, hundreds of these "I'll show you the quick money" websites I could find.

Negotiating as an investor I managed to convince these owners I wanted to buy their whole business, when the dollar signs appeared before their eyes they allowed me open access.. Well, I'm sure you can imagine what happened next....

I was horrified and disgusted with 99% of what I found some owners even bragged about "like taking candy from kids" It was like a secret cult, I repeatedly found

1. No support or follow up
2. Same old, same old information regurgitated in their own writing (most times copied word for word)
3. Outdated techniques, tools, tips and strategies
4. Weasel clause guarantees
5. No help section
6. Links that didn't work
7. Testimonials and names of gurus but no information on how to get in contact with them (sometimes I wonder whether these testimonials and gurus were figments of their imaginations)
8. No contact information and if there was it was a recorded message telling you to go to their FAQ (frequently asked questions)
9. and many more dodgy dealings I soon realized that most of these programs were useless, the owners knew it and were living the life of luxury without guilt, conscience or thought about the number of hard working people they screwed. Obviously they were politely told to p#$@ off when they asked if I was STILL interested in buying their businesses. It was a welcome relief and a great surprise that I did come across a couple of diamonds in the rough amongst these scam artists, hard working people who pride themselves on providing valuable legitimate services. Ordinary, honest, trustworthy people who had found the "Aladdin's Cave" of the internet. Their programs work and are not filled with fluff, filler and empty promises about 'a quick buck'. These business owners, everyday people like me and you had found a way to make a good passive income working from home on their computers. They provide a legitimate services that shows you exactly how to make $200- $400 (sometimes a whole lot more) a day doing very little work in your spare time. I even had the opportunity to chat with some of their members who confirmed and proved to me that they were making good money in their internet businesses. It was like Ali Baba discovering the secret password 'Open Sesame!' and a secret door had opened to a private treasure chest, but you don't have to take my word for it, you can visit the 4 sites I found below and have a look for yourself. They do charge a fee for their programs, trust me it is tiny in comparison to what you would pay in time, money and energy to unearth these tested and proven money making secrets. They have good support staff, quality 'how to do' help sections and people who are dedicated, willing and able to help you get started. FAST! Friendly people. Anyway if you decide you have had enough of the rat race, you are tired of living in traffic, working for a boss who dictates what you do with your time (he even decides when and where you can enjoy your holidays) you should get in touch quickly. These guys provide such a good legitimate service are getting new members every day through word of mouth that they are thinking of raising their fees (by the way this didn't come from me) or closing membership within the next couple of days.- they just don't have the staff to accommodate many more people. My search for legitimate money making secrets and programs came to an end, I can only say thank goodness there are a couple of trustworthy guys out there, I was mostly disappointed with what I found, it had cost me alot of time and money and I urge you not to take chances by joining any other programs other than the three listed below. Whatever you chose to do, I wish you a healthy prosperous future for you and your family. To your success Detective Dave Dedicated to multiplying your income.
